Memorandum

Recreation Department

DATE: February 16, 2013

TO: All Winter Youth Basketball Officials, Coaches, Fans, Players, & Parents

FROM: Wendi Lee Garrison, Recreation Supervisor III & Frank Carson, Recreation Supervisor III

SUBJECT: 2013 Playoff Rules

During the playoffs, every player must play a minimum of one (1) complete quarter from start to finish and sit out one (1) complete quarter from start to finish.

And just a reminder, there is no press and half-court traps allowed in the “D” and “C” divisions the entire season. There are no playoffs for the “D” Division. Last game for the “D” Division is February 23.

Fan & Parent Rules Still Apply:

If a fan or parent receives one technical foul, they cannot return to any games the remainder of the season. The only exception to this rule is if a parent or fan attended one of the parent/fan trainings prior to the season starting and they receive a technical foul, they will not be permitted to attend their child’s next scheduled game only. Additionally, if fan or parent refuses to leave after receiving a technical foul, the coach for that child’s team (if applicable) will be asked to assist in the passive removal of the fan or parent. If it takes more than 60 seconds thereafter for the fan or parent to completely leave the premises the game will be declared a forfeit.

TEN MISUNDERSTOOD BASKETBALL RULES

1. When counting 3 seconds in the key, (5 sec. “D” Division) the count starts over each time there is a shot, even if the ball does NOT touch the rim of the hoop.
2. Kicking the ball must be intentional, and it must be with any part of the leg or foot.
3. The top, sides, and bottom of the backboard are inbounds & legal, only the back is out. The ball may not pass over the backboard. (A made goal will not count if the shot is made from behind the hoop.)
4. The hand is part of the ball.
5. The ball may be passed into the backcourt on any throw-in.
6. A defensive player has the right to put their arms straight up and may jump straight up (principal of verticality) provided they have established position. Usually the player feels they are straight up but their arms are extended into the shooter’s space.
7. The court boundaries are inside the lines. The inbounder may step on but not over the line.
8. A passed or shot ball must be released before the pivot foot returns to the floor.
9. The shooting motion begins with the movement that precedes the actual release of the ball, which is normally when the player starts to pick up their dribble.
10. Players are placed on teams by their evaluation score by a blind draft; coaches do not select individual players.
